Known Dynamic Routes (Expected Behavior)

The following routes show errors during build but work correctly in production:

- API routes using `headers()` or `cookies()`
- Routes requiring authentication
- Dynamic data fetching endpoints

These are expected Next.js behaviors for dynamic server-rendered routes.

Issues Resolved

1. Connection Pool Exhaustion

Problem: Multiple PrismaClient instances exhausting database connections

Solution: Implemented singleton pattern for Prisma Client

Status: FIXED

2. HTTP 500 Errors

Problem: Middleware using Prisma in Edge Runtime

Solution: Removed Prisma from middleware, optimized for Edge

Status: FIXED

3. Build Timeouts

Problem: Build process exceeding 3-minute limit

Solution: Background build process for complex projects

Status: RESOLVED

4. Node Modules Missing

Problem: Dependencies not installed after server restart

Solution: npm install with `-legacy-peer-deps` flag
